Curator
STUDIO D.O.G.

Established at New York, as a production company which is a profession of fashion industry. Miho Kinomura is the representative of the STUDIO D.O.G (<http://www.studiodoginc.com>), located in Los Angeles, which collaborates with outstanding creators across the board. In her activities, she has expanded her portfolio by using global networking in fashion brand advertising, commercial film, music video, designing catalogs and website.

Miho used Vincent Gallo for the advertisement of Parco, Japanese department store. This was the first time for Vincent who came out in Japanese commercial film and Miho created the fad of Vincent Gallo in Japan.

In a Parco gallery, it was in the news that Miho created the collaboration among a worldwide photographer, Ellen Von Unwerth's exhibition and commercial film. In the BEAMS 30th anniversary advertisement "Tokyo Style Clash Hot or Not ", Miho, representative of STUDIO D.O.G., and Kensui Arao, a creative partner, collaborated with creative group "SHOW STUDIO" led by UK charismatic photographer, Nick Knight, and they were awarded the bronze medal in the "Clio Award" Innovative Media Apparel Fashion category.
